KOREAN WAR

Korea, The Untold Story of the War by Joseph C. Goulden, 1982, $0.50
this is a definitive story of one of the most momentous events in modern US history, our first “Hot war” with a Communist adversary. This was America’s first no-win, limited, undeclared war—a “police action,” the “wrong war in the wrong place at the wrong time,” probably unconstitutional, and ominous precedent costing 52,246 American lives, and the first war in which both the East and West are armed with nuclear bombs. (690 pages)
