

Godfrey news & updates

October 2020 | Issue 1

In case you haven't heard, WE ARE OPEN! Tuesdays, Wednesdays & Fridays 9:00am-4:00pm and 1st & 3rd Saturdays, 9:00am-1:00pm. We plan to remain open as long as it remains safe to do so. Please make sure you bring your mask!

Need help with your research? Just a reminder about our genealogy research services.

Did you know that the Godfrey has a YouTube Channel?? So far we have only one instructional video ("How to Use the AGBI"), but we hope to be adding more soon. Watch it below, then let us know what you would like to see.

We need to freshen up our reviews!

Have you had a positive experience at the Godfrey? (We certainly hope so!) Perhaps we've helped you with an AGBI request or you've hired us to help you with a research question. Or maybe you dropped in to do some research. We'd love it if you could share your experience with others via an online review. Google us, and write a review in the box on the right-hand side of the page. Or drop by our Facebook page (link below) and brag about us there.

LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS!

Do you enjoy taking photos? Going for nice autumn strolls? Helping the genealogical community? Combine all three and help us photograph a few more cemeteries for the

Ed Laput Cemetery Project before the snow flies. (Shhhh! Did we say the "s" word??)

Call us and talk to Carol, Al or Michael.

There's Gold on Them Thar Shelves! Or should we say, "Silver"?

Looking for the Mayflower "Silver Books"? We've Got Them All!

Yes, you read that right, we've got them all! If you're looking for your Mayflower connection, one of the most valuable resources is the General Society of Mayflower Descendants' (GSMD) series known as the "Silver Books" due to their recognizable cover color. Each book treats at least five generations--some go even farther.
